Just ordered P90X! Can't wait to get started.

Been a lurker here for a bit and have finally bit the bullet and ordered the DVDs.

I'll upload some before pictures when I get a chance.

Just got it in today! I'm gonna be starting it this Saturday! I'm excited to be trying something new and that looks like it will push me hard!

Can't wait. Looks like it'll be fun and just the thing I need to get over my slump.

I just got bored going to the gym everyday doing the same few routines. I needed to change it up a bit.

I'll let y'all know my progress on it. Going to go take some before pics. I'll have them on my profile later if you want to come see, and have a few laughs while you're at it.

By the way, if you laugh, you're going to hell. J/K! :laugh:

Just completed Day 1 and it kicked my butt. I LOVE IT!

I see what people mean by a love/hate relationship with Ab Ripper...

completely understandable les... but do i look like i would ever say shiznit?? I got a good laugh out of that when I saw it.

BTW dhies, you should consider starting a daily log.
